A Museum About You!

You have been appointed curator of a museum about yourself! It is up to you to decide what people will see when they come to visit your museum. First, create different "zones" similar to those you saw during your visit to the Hockey Hall of Fame. For example, you might have a Family Zone or a Sports Zone.

Then, under each zone heading, draw a picture or list a few objects or people you would want to include in each zone. For example, in the Family Zone, you might want to list your parents, brothers and sisters or pets. In the Sports Zone, you might draw a picture of your soccer jersey. Think about all the artifacts you saw while you were at the Hockey Hall of Fame. Each one had a special story or memory behind it. Try to choose objects that have special meaning in your life.

Family Zone	Friends Zone	Sports Zone	Awards Zone
_____ Zone	_____ Zone	_____ Zone	_____ Zone

— Create a Poster —

Make a poster about your favourite hockey player. Show the class your work, and tell them why this is your favourite player. What elements of design did you use (shape, colour, lines, texture, value, space)?

- Students can work alone or in pairs
- Use the space below, or on bristol board
- Posters can be displayed throughout the classroom

Play the Hockey Word Game #1

Try to think of a hockey word for each letter of the alphabet. See how many words you can get. You can use hockey cards and pictures from newspapers and magazines, or you can visit www.hhof.com for ideas.

You may be able to think of several words for some of the letters. For the letters that you are unable to find answers for, create your own word and describe what it means.

*students may work in pairs
